

We are quite pleased with the Indiana No-Call list the way it is. Banking companies peddling all of their credit cards and loan opportunities were the worse callers we had, all hours, day and night. Please do not consider changing the way Indiana handles these businesses who annoying call all the time.